MAKE AN IMPACT

A PLACE FOR STOCKTON TEENS

MAKING A DIFFERENCE ... GIVING BACK TO STOCKTON

TEEN IMPACT CENTER GOALS

- ❖ Engage youth in creating and managing the Teen Center's success through leadership and personal development opportunities.
- ❖ Partner with Stockton's teens, families, and schools to invest in the success of its teens through academic achievement, life-skill building, and employment
- ❖ Build physically and emotionally healthy teens through diverse recreational activities.
- ❖ Create opportunities for community investment and engagement to support sustainability.
